

I am an OTR truck driver that has found satellite radio to be a important tool in keeping me informed of changing weather patterns and traffic conditions in many of the locations that I travel. The fact that I can maintain a radio signal, no matter where I am, is a service I would truly miss. I am happy to pay for this service, not only to stay informed, but it also keeps me alert as the miles roll by.